2.1. Introduction & Scope of Work:

The Finger Print Bureau(FPB)- CID, Telangana State currently operates with one Fingerprint Unit in each District/Commissionerate responsible for collecting chance prints at crime scenes. However, for an extended period, the FPB has relied on outdated and traditional methods for processing crime scenes to gather physical evidence, including chance prints.

Recent advancements in fingerprint development technology offer significantly improved standards for crime scene processing. To address this gap, the FPB requires immediate procurement of advanced equipment.

The successful implementation of the Automated Fingerprint Identification System (AFIS) Project in Telangana Police by Papillon, Russia in 2017 and later phases has resulted in equipping Police Stations with essential tools and establishing a robust AFIS network connecting all TS Police stations. However, the project's 5-year warranty has expired, coinciding with the New Criminal Procedure (Identification) (CrPI) Act, 2022, which mandates strengthening biometric collection and identification.

TS Police is now seeking the upgradation of the existing Papillon AFIS (Automated Fingerprint Identification System) to transform into Papillon AMBIS.

Telangana State Police Department

This upgrade will involve the addition of new functionalities and supplementary plugins to ensure compliance with all the stipulations of the CrP(I)Act, 2022.

The overall data center including current and upgraded should be provided with 5 years comprehensive warranty.

The successful bidder shall supply all the ordered items as per details mentioned in RFP.

2.3. Scope of Proposed AMBIS Project:

The New Criminal Procedure Identification Act (CrPI Act) of 2022 significantly expands the scope of biometric data collection, aiming to enhance identification capabilities. This mandate requires the collection and processing of additional biometric measurements like iris scans, facial images, and footprints, among others. Hence expanding the software capabilities of Papillon AFIS by adding the additional software and hardware plugins of Papillon both at client and server side are essential. The client side includes enrolment stations, mobile search terminals and Expert stations. This expanded new software and hardware system now known as the Automated Multi Modal Biometric Identification System (AMBIS).

The Finger Print Bureau, CID, TS has a proven track record of successful implementation of large-scale projects like the Automated Fingerprint Identification System (AFIS).

However, transitioning to the new AMBIS system necessitates the addition of software plugins and hardware components. This expansion addresses the gap between the existing AFIS infrastructure and the proposed AMBIS system, also referred to as the Next Generation Identification System.

Software Plugins: Integrate specialized software plugins of Papillon to manage and process the expanded range of biometric data within the AMBIS system, which includes the latest AI&NN based search algorithms.
